TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO CHEESWRIGHTS' APPOINTMENT AS AGENT FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS IN THE COURTS OF ENGLAND AND WALES

1. On receipt of any service of process, we will accept such service on behalf of the appointing party and notify the said party to this effect.

2. Any such notification will be sent by facsimile and e-mail (if possible) and by post to the e-mail address, facsimile number and postal address indicated by the appointing party on the form appointing Cheeswrights as agent for service of process, or to such e-mail address, facsimile number and/or postal address as may subsequently be notified to us in writing.

3. Such e-mail and facsimile transmission (if possible) and letter duly dispatched as indicated above shall constitute a good discharge of our duties under our appointment.

4. Following such notification we will send to the appointing party the documents which we have received in connection with the service of such process.

5. Cheeswrights shall have no other duties or responsibilities under the terms of the appointment save as provided above.

6. The appointing party shall have no right of action against Cheeswrights for any failure to perform any of such duties, except where this is due to negligence or wilful default on the part of Cheeswrights.

7. The appointment may be terminated by either party giving written notice to the other at any time, unless the terms of the letter by which Cheeswrights accept their appointment shall provide otherwise.

8. The terms of the appointment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law, and the appointing party hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts in relation to any dispute which may arise out of or in connection with our appointment.

9. Service of proceedings will be made at our address at Bankside House, 107 Leadenhall Street, London EC3A 4HA or at Cheeswrights' current place of business if different.

These terms and conditions accepted
